

Adult D-Group Discussion Questions – Jeremiah

Jeremiah 1

In what ways do we forsake God today like Israel did?

Jeremiah blamed his youth for not being able to do what God called him to do. What excuses do we make in our own life for not being ready to act on what God lays on our hearts to do for Him?

Jeremiah 25

Jeremiah 25:3I have spoken to you again and again, but you have not listened. Can God say this to someone in my influence if I'm the one He wants to use to tell them "again and again" of their need for the gospel?

Jeremiah 29

The exiles were taken to Babylon and encouraged to pursue the well-being of the city where they were aliens. Even though we are not in exile, how can we pursue the well-being of our city?

Jeremiah 32

As a nation, do you feel we are past the point of no return? Do you think America will ever experience singleness with God again?

Jeremiah 33

Jeremiah 52

King Zedekiah and the people did evil in the eyes of the Lord that led to the fall of Jerusalem. The Lord had enough. Are we urgently pursuing righteousness for our people and leaders in our country? What are some examples of what we can do?

Psalms 69

When the world presses in on us because of our devotion to Christ, what comfort can be found in a community like this? Where have you found it in the Church?
